SUSIE GRAY
FAT FACE

“Molly was commissioned by my client, developer Cotswold Homes, to develop a new permanent public artwork for North Road Primary School in Engine Common, close to their housing development. Molly worked closely with the primary school children and teachers, running creative workshops to develop shapes and themes for the work. She then developed and realised a design for a large gable wall in the school playground.

The wall is now incredibly well used, the artwork met the brief, was executed with great professionalism and is a hugely positive and eye-catching addition to the school. Molly was a joy to work with and I wouldn't hesitate to recommend her.”
